TOUR NAME

Wine Tasting

Sardinian vineyards create some of Italy's best red and white wines. This tour will take you to a family-run vineyard called Surrau, which matches ancient wine-making techniques with modern architecture. The tour starts with a short viewing of the vineyard, where you'll be able to wander among the vines. Heading inside, you'll see modern stone cellars that store wine in old wooden barrels. Here, your guide will run through the know-how of wine-making. A visit to the chic wine bar, with its curved bar and modern furniture, rounds things off. As well as sipping resident specialities like Cannonau and Vermentino, you'll nibble on Sardinian flatbreads – known as 'music paper'. There's plenty to see in your half-hour of free time, too – the handsome stone and glass building is filled with local art exhibits and a shop selling beautifully-packaged wine, food and ceramics.
