TOUR NAME

Old Time Train To Gallura

Follow in the footsteps of famous author D.H. Lawrence and travel by vintage train to Gallura. Kicking this trip off is a drive through Sardinia's sensational countryside to Arzachena. Here you'll board the narrow gauge train to begin your journey into the mountains. You'll chug through tunnels. Clickety-click by the Lake of Liscia. And trundle past fairytale forests. It's real Railway Children stuff. Next you'll head for Tempio Pausania. Here your time's your own to explore this charming town. Admire the grey granite architecture that earned this place the nickname 'city of stones'. Pop into the cathedral to see paintings from the 17th century. Or pick up a few cork craft souvenirs to take home.
